

Stepping outside Time and becoming a friend of Jesus and the disciples 2000 years ago

"COME, FOLLOW ME"

Glenn Clark

COPYRIGHT, 1952
1st Edition-1952

PUBLISHED IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
BY MACALESTER PARK PUBLISHING COMPANY
1571 GRAND AVENUE, ST. PAUL 5, MINNESOTA

DEDICATION

This book is dedicated to my little nine-year-old granddaughter, Mary Louise Elliott, to whom I read the manuscript while she awaited the angels of Heaven to take her to Jesus.

"It gives me good dreams," was her last comment before her granddaddy departed on a journey from whence he was never to see her on earth again. She and I shared many precious day-dreams and one of them was that the reading of this book will bring you good dreams, too.

As John, who interpreted the inner soul of Jesus, recorded some events of his life in different order from the synoptic gospels, so in this narrative an occasional liberty has been taken with the sequence and locality of incidents.

As you comprehend and accept the beauty, simplicity and true revelation of Jesus as found in this book, you will inspirationally feel that you have written it yourself.

As you read it, you are the one taking this journey back to Jesus.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER

1. Take Me to Jesus
2. I Look into the Face of Zebedee
3. Concerning Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh
4. A Glimpse of Jesus' Childhood
5. A Journey to Cana
6. In the Footsteps of the Carpenter
7. A Voice in a Synagogue
8. A Sermon on a Mountain
9. Cleopas Appears
10. Inside Jerusalem
11. A Woman of Sychar
12. Discovering the Good Samaritan
13. "Forbid Them Not"
14. A Mountain Top
15. On the Mountain Again
16. Fishing for Men
17. The Problem of Suffering
18. Insiders and Outsiders
19. Jesus Dines with Simon the Pharisee
20. Quelling Storms
21. Toward the Mountain
22. Return to the Valley
23. The Disciples Ask a Question
24. Who Is the Greatest?
25. A Memorable Hour with Jesus
26. A Little Home in Bethany
27. Raised from the Dead
28. Born Again
29. The Upper Room
30. A Night of Darkness
31. A Cross on a Hill
32. The Road to Emmaus
33. Christ Lives