

Living Prayer

"...is to make all Life Alive by Filling It with the Wonder of the Presence of God."

Glenn Clark
Living Prayer

"For the highest art of life is a living prayer, a continual, dynamic, and whole-souled communion with God and man in His image, through Jesus Christ."

Glenn Clark

"Prayer is governed by the same laws that control the flow of a stream, the art of a game, the life of a bee. One who learns and practices these laws correctly should be able to do business better, love better, serve better; for to learn how to pray is to learn how to live."

As Christ Prayed

"Twenty-five years ago I had started a camp the purpose of which was to go all the way out in teaching people how to pray and live Christianity victoriously so they could go all the way out in love, faith and obedience, with their spirit-filled lives a demonstration of the effectiveness of prayer and the trustworthiness of God."

“God gave us our name (Camps Farthest Out) for a purpose whose full magnificence we did not at first comprehend! A Kingdom of God Movement of Good Tidings that is destined to spread throughout the world – a movement that can unite all the spiritual forces of the world in one common meeting place, the place of prayer.”
